DRUG FIEND KILLS HIS MUM WITH AN ALARM CLOCK

By COLIN HURST

AN EVIL son killed his mother with an alarm clock after she refused to hand over her cash card so he could buy drugs.

Beast Joshua Nunn, 42, battered his 72-year-old mum with a hammer before finishing her off with the clock.

The monster has been caged for life.

Ryanair chief: Airport hell will last all summer

THE boss of budget airline Ryanair has warned flight delays and cancellations will continue "right throughout the summer" as airports suffer amid staff shortages.

Michael O'Leary (above), chief executive of Ryanair, said passengers should brace for a "less than satisfactory experience", with flight delays due to last across the peak season and some airlines cancelling between 5% and 10% of flights.

He told Sky News this was "deeply regrettable".

He said: "This problem is going to continue, particularly at airports like Gatwick and Heathrow right throughout the summer."

"It will be worse at weekends and better during the week."

He blamed the mess on shortages of airport staff across air traffic control, baggage handling and security.

More help call over soaring energy bills

ONE of the experts predicting another £1,000 rise in energy bills this autumn has said the government will be called on to provide more support to billpayers.

Craig Lowrey and his colleagues at Cornwall Insight think the price cap on bills will hit around £2,980 between October and December.

It would not just be an all-time high, it would also be over £1,000 higher than the previous record.

Bills have already soared, hitting £1,971 in the April price cap, from £1,277 previously.

THOUSANDS of people greeted the sun with cheers as it rose over Stonehenge for the summer solstice on Tuesday.

Those who observed the spectacle at the neolithic Wiltshire monument had a chilly morning accompanied by clear skies as the sun glinted over the horizon at 4.49am.

This year was the first time members of the public have been allowed to attend the solstice in person since 2019, with the last two years' events streamed online because of the pandemic.

Wiltshire Police said the event passed off peacefully, with around 6,000 people attending and just two arrests made.

Superintendent Phil Staynings said: "This year's summer solstice has been a success on many levels."

"Inevitably, there were some traffic delays approaching Stonehenge due to the sheer number of vehicles wanting to visit the site, but overall the whole event has passed off with no major incidents and the atmosphere remained convivial throughout."

As it was the longest day, it means the nights are drawing in until Christmastime.

NIGHTS ARE DRAWING IN...

Dig deep for extra £380 at supermarket

THE average annual grocery bill in the UK is set to rise by £380 this year, according to research firm Kantar.

That means shoppers could be paying on average an extra £32 a month for food and other groceries.

In April, the firm predicted the cost of the average annual supermarket shop would go up by £271 in 2022.

The upward revision shows "just how sharp price increases have been recently and the impact inflation is having on the sector", Kantar said.

The survey also showed grocery prices rose by 8.3% over the past four weeks, the highest rate in 13 years.

"The inflation number makes for difficult reading and shoppers will be watching budgets closely as the cost-of-living crisis takes its toll," said Fraser McEvitt, head of retail and consumer insight at Kantar.

Official figures for April showed overall inflation was running at 9% a year in the UK, the highest rate for 40 years.

Fewer people moving in May

AROUND five per cent fewer house sales took place in May this year than in the same month in 2021, according to HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) figures.

Some experts said it could be a sign of the impact of rising mortgage rates and living costs on the housing market.

Across the UK, 109,210 homes changed hands last month, marking a 5.1% fall compared with May 2021.

However, the total edged up by 1.3% compared with April 2022.

The total for May this year is also up compared with the 96,500 house sales recorded in the same month in 2019, before the pandemic.

House prices have hit a string of record highs in recent months.

Britain's rail network is crippled by strike

MILLIONS of Britons were yesterday hit by severe travel disruption, with only a fifth of train services running due to the biggest national rail strike in 33 years.

Half of lines were closed, affecting large swathes of the UK and most of Scotland and Wales, with limited hours of 7.30am to 6.30pm for those that were open.

Usually busy stations such as London Euston were nearly deserted, except for picket lines by union members.

Louis Cartwright-Walls turned up at Cardiff Station, hoping to get a train to Newport for a "vital" work meeting.

But the departure boards were empty.

"I rely on the trains. I don't drive, this is my only transport," he told Sky News.

"I'm going to have to pay for an Uber if nothing turns up. That's going to cost in excess of £40. But they'll up their prices, I'm sure."

After a six-hour flight from Egypt, Carol Hutchinson arrived in the UK to find her direct train from Birmingham International station cancelled.

She made her way to New Street and was waiting to board what appeared to be one of the few trains still running. "I think it's going to be standing room only. I'm not even sure I'll get on with my suitcase," she said.

Pupils and parents also said they had to deal with the stress of making alternative plans for getting to school for A-level and GCSE exams.

Roads in cities and town centres were busier than usual during the morning rush hour, according to National Highways.

Some 40,000 members of the Rail, Maritime and Transport union (RMT) on Network Rail and 13 train operators are taking industrial action after last-ditch talks failed to resolve a dispute over pay, jobs and working conditions.

Network Rail has warned that the strikes, also set for Thursday and Saturday, will cause six days of disruption because of the knock-on effect on services on the days in between.

On days between the strikes, 60% of services will run.

...AND NOW WE CAN'T GET ANY GRUB!

IF a rail strike were not bad enough, the internet service that powers grub delivery service JustEat crashed yesterday too!

A major outage at content delivery network Cloudflare caused hundreds of websites across the internet to stop working and return a '500 Internal Server Error' message.

Cloudflare is the most popular content delivery network.

Websites affected by the outage included Discord, Shopify, Fitbit, Peloton, bummng app Grindr, Ring, bet365, Google, NordVPN, JustEat and Ladbrokes, according to Downdetector, which monitors website outages.

The Cloudflare team is aware of the current service issues and is working to resolve as quickly as possible,' Cloudflare stated on its official Twitter account.

The company has since claimed to have resolved the issue.

The issue prompted many internet users to express distress about 'large chunks of the internet' returning a 500 Internal Server Error on social media.

'Half the internet is down because of some cloudflare issue giving a 500 server internal nginx error. Pingu is taking over the world as we speak. Twitter is next. It's over folks. Noot noot,' wrote one Twitter user.

HOPE THEY DEEP-CLEANED THE BEDDING SECTION!

Man, I bet the bedding department was closed soon after for a deep clean.

Did she leave something in the changing rooms and then blame it on the dog?

IT looks like Amber Heard is counting the pennies now she owes ex-hubby Johnny Depp £7million in damages.

The Aquaman star was spotted shopping at discount department store TJ Maxx – the US version of TK Maxx.

Sources said in early June that the 36-year-old actress is "broke" due to hefty legal fees associated with her and Depp's bombshell trial.

And that was before she was ordered to pay millions for defamatory statements.

When asked if the actress had the means to cover the judgment handed down by the jury, her lawyer Elaine Bredehoft said "Oh no, absolutely not."

Sneaky

Still, Heard was shopping at the TJ Maxx in Bridgehampton, New York, so she probably isn't maxing out her credit cards.

Mail were quick to mock.

Referencing claims that Amber SHIT in the marital bed while living with Johnny Depp, one reader quipped: "I bet the bedding department was closed afterwards for a deep clean."

Another asked: "Did she leave something in the changing rooms and blame it on the dog?"

During legal action between the pair, Amber claimed it was the dog, not her, that had shit in the bed.

But not all comments were negative.

One reader slavered: "I don't care how crazy she is. I would lick every inch of her with or without whipped cream."

FESTIVALGOERS have been warned NOT to piss in rivers and ponds... because their drug-laced tinkle gets fish HIGH!

Research by Bangor University, using water samples downstream from the last Glastonbury Festival, found illicit drugs reached potentially environmentally damaging levels in the river flowing through the site.

Christian Dunn, who led the research said: "These drugs are most likely getting into the water by people peeing in the area."

ACTRESS Jemima Kirke said she never felt uncomfortable filming intimate scenes for TV show Girls.

The Conversations with Friends actress was discussing the introduction of intimacy coordinators, who choreograph and supervise sex scenes to help actors feel more comfortable.

Jemima, 37, who has never worked with one, admitted she found the spontaneity and ability to improvise in those scenes on Girls "exciting" at the time.

She said: "They weren't as directed as conversational scenes.

"I can totally understand how some people could be uncomfortable with that, but I wasn't."

"It was more exciting to me, not necessarily sexual or a turn-on, but I was curious to know what it would be like to be naked and doing these actions in front of the sound guy and all these different people."

THE psychologists would have a field day with this one...

It seems the latest fashion among pop stars is to caryot around while wearing a giant strap-on COCK!

Swedish songstress Tove Lo took to TikTok last week, wearing an outfit which looked like it was from Doctor Who...if the costume designers had got high and stuck a giant COCK on the front.

Christina Aguilera caused a storm when she donned a huge GREEN strap on for a concert.

The Dirrrty 41-year-old pop star sent fans into a frenzy when she came out in Hulk-like ensemble, featuring a bedazzled dildo strapped to her pelvis at a gay pride bash in Los Angeles.

That stunned some who called for Xtina to be nicked for public indecency – as there were nippers in the audience.

Miley Cyrus wore a black strap-on during a photoshoot in which she also revealed her fine, young breasts and cute tufty fanny.

And Nicki Minaj wore a strap-on during one show which was too realistic for comfort.

Traditionally, strap-ons were used by lesbians for their sapphic cavitings but recently, women have been wearing them to bum their male partners up the arse, a "femdom" practice known as "pegging".

COME AGAIN? BOFFINS MEASURE FEMALE ORGASMS

THEY'RE often considered the peak of pleasure, yet until now, there hasn't been an official definition of the female orgasm.

While males usually ejaculate when reaching orgasm, females have different bodily sensations when they climax.

Scientists from the University of Ottawa have set out to measure the female orgasm for the first time.

And their findings suggest that female orgasms should be defined as "pleasurable satisfaction", while moaning should be removed as a measure entirely.

They hope the findings could be used to improve interventions for women who are unsatisfied with orgasm experiences.

In the study, the researchers set out to answer the question: "How do you measure the female orgasm?"

Research lead Amy Elizabeth Webb wrote in The Journal of Sexual Medicine: "Orgasm, particularly in older women, remains a poorly understood aspect of female sexual response, partly because of a lack of validated self-report measures."

The team probed 637 women about their experiences with orgasms – both in a solitary context, and with a partner.

The survey included questions on both the Orgasm Rating Scale and the Bodily Sensations of Orgasm Scale.

Across different factors, women were asked the degree to which they experienced each sensation during orgasm.

And the results revealed that across pre, peri and post-menopausal women, pleasurable satisfaction was reported as the most common ORS item.

In contrast, emotional intimacy and shooting sensations were the least common.

However, anal contractions and moaning were the least common.

Michelle set to nurse you better in Aussie drama

The drama will follow a group who have been promised a better quality of life in Australia for only £10, leaving behind post-war Britain.

Creator Brocklehurst said: "It is a delight to welcome so much exciting Australian talent, as well as working with the brilliant Faye and Warren for the first time."

"This is my third outing with the wonderful Michelle Keegan and I'm positive we will make another winner together."

Michelle (above) will play young nurse Kate, who arrives in Australia without her fiancé and will do whatever it takes to "rewrite her devastating past".

POLICE have issued a warning after receiving reports of a naked man walking in the New Forest.

Officers responsible for patrolling the Forest have alerted the public via Facebook to reports of a naked man spotted in the Lyndhurst, Hants, area.

Officers have been patrolling the area in a bid to locate him.

They said: "He's been spotted in the area behind the cemetery at Bolton's Bench, in the woods that run alongside the A35 from Ashurst to Lyndhurst and on the 9th fairway at Lyndhurst Golf Course.

"We've been looking for him and carrying out reassurance patrols.

"He doesn't appear to be a threat to the public, but our advice is don't approach him and contact us immediately."

PRISON BANS UNDERPANTS!

New rule after lags caught SMOKING Y-fronts

Mirror, mirror on the PHWOAR!

LITTLE Lottie Moss gave social media followers another glimpse at her partially clothed body as she took to Instagram.

In what has rapidly become a recurring theme, the half-sister of supermodel Kate Moss stripped off her top and revealed her lingerie while posing for a series of photos.

Los Angeles-based Lottie, 24, opted for a lacy white basque and matching underwear as she gazed at her own reflection, staring back at her from a gilded bathroom mirror.

One fan said: "I would dearly like to bum her. Up the arse."

A PRISON has banned inmates from having Y-FRONTs sent in, it was revealed this week.

Bosses at HMP High Down in Surrey outlawed underwear – including Y-fronts and boxer shorts – being sent in by friends and family.

Jail chiefs took the decision after finding that folk on the outside were spraying the pants with liquid Spice and then sending them in parcels to inmates.

Jailbirds could then rip the pants into tiny pieces and sell them to other prisoners, who then smoked the zombie drug to get high.

A report into the Surrey jail released last week by inspectors from the Monitoring Board (IMB) revealed how inmates could 'apply' for clothing parcels to be sent in but were warned not to ask for pants.

Spice

It stated: "Prisoners can apply for parcels of clothing to be sent in by friends or relatives, except for underwear.

"This is no longer accepted due to problems with it being sprayed with drugs such as new psychoactive substances, such as Spice."

The report said that all underwear purchases now had to be made through a prison-approved catalogue.

In the past year, the report revealed how there had been 744 drugs finds.

It added: "We remain concerned that despite enhanced gate security, body scanners and other initiatives introduced to disrupt the flow of illicit items into the prison, the men continue to report to us that there is still a ready supply of drugs available."

Bosses are currently reviewing the policy and are considering banning all clothing parcels.

The report added: "The way prisoners obtain clothes is being reviewed, so it may be the case that only new items from catalogues will be accepted in future."

Spice is one of the most widespread drugs in UK prison, with thousands of the lags 'out of it' on the drug, nicknamed 'bird killer' because it kills time while 'doing bird'.

Some variants of Spice are so powerful they can make the user think that they are 'invincible', and gives them superhuman strength, while others send users into a zombie-like catatonic state.

Prison bosses say they are spending £100m across the prison estate to 'stop drugs getting into prisons'.

STAND ON ONE LEG AND LIVE LONGER!

If you can't stand on one leg, you are going to DIE!

That's the warning from medical experts who want to introduce a flamingo-style balance test to mid-life health check-ups.

A study found people who can't stand on one leg for 10 seconds have an increased risk of death within just seven years.

Asking people to stand on one leg for 10 seconds provides "useful information regarding mortality risk in middle-aged and older men and women", researchers discovered.

The team of global researchers, including experts from Bristol Medical School, examined data on 1,702 people aged 51 to 75 from Brazil.

Some 17.5% of people who failed the one-leg standing test were among those who a few years later were found to have died, compared to just 4.6% of those who had passed the test.

Great gran, 90, fights off bear with deckchair

A 90-YEAR-OLD great gran fought off a black bear... with just her deckchair.

Altha Williams miraculously only suffered a scratch to her arm after the bear, which was with three cubs, attacked her on the front porch of her home in Sevierville, Tennessee.

"It just made a lunge at me," she said, adding the bear's face was "right in my face".

"I was just sitting here, hadn't been here more than two or three minutes. Evidently it heard me."

Altha (above), who lives near the Smoky Mountains National Park, said she used her deckchair to try to scare the bear off.

"I've been praising the Lord ever since then, because I may not be here," she said.

The elderly woman had to be treated in hospital for a laceration on her arm.

When Altha had encountered bears outside her home in the past, she said they usually got scared and ran off.

If it's too hot to w*nk, shag a watermelon!

AN expert has warned against masturbation in hot weather and suggested shagging a WATERMELON instead.

"Rubbing the penis produces varying degrees of friction, which stimulates the sensitive penile nerves and produces the sensation that makes masturbation so irresistible," sex expert John Dugan said.

"However, friction generates heat, and a little extra heat is the last thing a guy needs on a hot summer night."

He also claims that men can get pleasure from a watermelon.

"Watermelons can provide some juicy fun. Simply carve a hole in a melon of the appropriate size and depth, insert the penis and simulate sexual activity," he said.

"It's a little disorganized, but it packs a punch."

COPS in Mexico have trained a dog to sniff out NONCES!

Black labrador Hidu graduated from the police academy in Mexico City and has already collared his first beast.

Hidu (above) nicked a high-profile criminal suspect by sniffing out triphenylphosphine oxide, or TPPO, a chemical coating used in electronic devices.

Hidu used his sense of smell to hunt down alleged evidence of child pornography in the Mexico City apartment of Jason Maatman, a Dutchman who promotes sex with kids.

Maatman had fled to Mexico City to escape pending legal action in his homeland but was tracked down.

Hidu smelled the TPPO, a chemical used in memory devices like flash drives and memory cards to prevent overheating.

Maatman was arrested and is now being held on charges of human trafficking and drug and weapons possession.

A DOPEY junkie who asked cops to do a quality check on his crystal meth will have to do 25 hours of community service and cough up £500 in court costs.

Colucci had already sampled the drugs in question and thought they were bogus.

He was wrong and the drugs were real. He was then nickel.

As part of the deal, Colucci will also have to refrain from alcohol and drug consumption and will be tested regularly to ensure he is clean.

Romp caught on CCTV NAKED WOMAN FINGERED IN SHOPPING CENTRE CAR PARK

SEE IT MALL: Miranda had it off down at the shops

By BRAD CHADWICK

news@sundaysport.co.uk

WHEN Miranda Houk-Smith stripped naked to let her man finger her minge and squeeze her busters in a van pulled up in a shopping centre car park, she THOUGHT nobody could see.

But she had not spotted the CCTV camera keeping a beady eye on the parking area.

Inside the Walmark supermarket in Bazetta, Ohio, security guards got a bird's eye view of Houk-Smith's leathery pissflaps being parted and her gaping hole being roughly fingered.

Kinky

They also saw a finger slip up her bumhole, while her companion sucked hungrily on her sagging dugs.

And that was not all...

Because the security station in the shopping centre was open plan – allowing anyone to see the screens and 40-year-old Houk-Smith's kinky antics.

Soon a large crowd had gathered, with some members of the public cheering and shouting cries of encouragement.

Naturally, police were eventually summoned.

As cops arrived, they say it appeared that the woman was putting her bikini top back on.

Both suspects, who told the officer they didn't know they were on camera, were each issued a court summons to answer a citation for public indecency.

Rick Carnes, 65, of Cortland, pleaded not guilty and was released on bail pending another court hearing set for next month.

Houk-Smith failed to turn up for the hearing and a warrant was put out for her arrest.

She's now been arrested and is locked up in Trumbull County Jail to await her hearing.

Affair suspect killed with irrigation pipe

A MAN said he beat his co-worker to death because he believed he was having an affair with his wife.

Jose Gutierrez-Rosales, 49, allegedly twatted Hector Vasquez, 56, with an irrigation pipe as they were working together.

"I ate about two tacos and I felt my body like strange and then all of a sudden I grabbed the pipe and I just started going at him," he told cops in Kern County, California.

"This is for getting involved with my family," Gutierrez-Rosales reportedly said he told Vasquez as he kept hitting him.

The victim was pronounced dead at the scene. He suffered facial fractures, cuts to his face and back of his head and several of his teeth were knocked out.

MAN USED BITCOIN IN BID TO HIRE HITMAN

A MAN admitted to using bitcoin in an attempt to hire a hitman to murder his ex-girlfriend after she wanted to end their brief relationship.

Scott Berkett, 25, pleaded guilty in the murder-for-hire plot, in which he paid about £11,000 in the cryptocurrency for the woman's murder.

The California native met the victim online in 2020 and the woman flew out to Los Angeles to see him in October of that year.

But after that trip the victim tried to break things off multiple times with Berkett, whose behaviour she said was "sexually aggressive".

Berkett (left) admitted in his plea agreement he sought a hitman via a website on the Dark Web and he was contacted by an undercover cop posing as a hitman.

Berkett said he paid in bitcoin for her slaying. He requested further proof of her murder and paid another $1,000 through Western Union for her death before he was arrested in May 2021.

He will be sentenced on September 12.

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

DID you know it's National Pink Day?

Of course you didn't, because it's a load of baloney dreamed up by PR nitwits and besides, it's tomorrow anyway.

Its organisers say: "National Pink Day is celebrated on June 23 every year.

"As you might imagine, it's a day to celebrate the meaning, history, and beauty of the pale shade of red. "Surveys in both the United States and Europe found pink to be most commonly associated with femininity, sensitivity and tenderness."

And it's also the colour most associated with ladies' interesting wet bits.

But we can't show that, so here are five pages of topless babes wearing pink – and not a lot else!

SICK Leonard Gonzalez was a karate instructor on a mission for mayhem. But it'll take more than a few kicks and chops to break the bars that now cage him on Death Row...

THE NINJA ASSASSINS

GUN KILLER: Gonzalez

GENEROUS Byrd Billings, 66, and his wife Melanie, 43, didn't deserve the terrible fate that befell them.

The wealthy couple, who owned a string of businesses in Escambia County, Florida, devoted their lives to helping others.

They had four children of their own, yet they took in a further 12 adopted kids – all with special needs – in a bid to give them a life filled with love and joy.

Shattered

But the happiness in the Billings home was shattered forever on the night of July 9, 2009.

Evil martial arts expert Leonard Gonzalez rounded up a posse of ninja assassins and invaded the Billings home, seeking jewels hidden in a locked safe. When the heist went horribly wrong, poor Byrd and Melanie were gunned down in front of nine of their terrified, cowering and vulnerable adopted children.

It was a callous, heartbreaking act that deserved justice to match.

When ringleader Gonzalez was sentenced to death in February 2011, few mourned his fate.

Judge Nickolas Geeker slammed his actions, saying the Billingses would have died believing their children would also be murdered.

Mercifully, those children – who have disabilities ranging from Down's syndrome to foetal alcohol syndrome and cerebral palsy – were unharmed.

Judge Geeker told Gonzalez: "They would have assumed their minor children would not have been left behind as witnesses."

State attorney Bill Eddins added: "Leonard Patrick Gonzalez is the man who had his hand on the gun and his finger on the trigger."

"He is the man who fired the shots that killed Mr and Mrs Billings."

"This defendant had every opportunity in life. He had a good, loving mother who provided him with love, support and positive direction. He had a loving wife who put up with his addiction to painkillers and his inability to make a living."

"This man knew, beyond every shadow of a doubt, how to respect people. He taught children to have respect for others and to have integrity."

Gonzalez, a father of six, had once run a karate school with this wife Tabitha.

Ironically, the pair even laid on self-defence classes for women and children called FightBack.

Gonzalez, a bona fide black belt, had been interviewed by the local press about the way he was equipping kids with the skills to beat bullies.

He told one reporter: "Our goal is to get to the children first and educate them in their rights."

But behind the scenes, the karate school was failing.

By July 2009, the business had closed its doors for good and Gonzalez was struggling financially.

He and Tabitha got jobs at a local antiques firm, while his mother, Terri Poff, was helping them pay the bills.

Gonzalez showed up at the Billings home, where he attempted to talk Byrd – a renowned local entrepreneur who ran several successful car dealerships – into putting his money in the karate school so they could open up shop again.

Byrd politely declined the offer, warning that it represented to him a bad investment".

Generosity

But, ever the gentleman, he wrote a cheque for $5,000 in a bid to keep the self-defence project going.

It was an act of complete generosity – but Gonzalez seethed at the perceived snub.

He was convinced Byrd kept close to $13m worth of jewels and cash in a locked safe on the property.

He set about recruiting a small army to go and get it, with each thug promised a cut of the haul.

One way or another, Gonzalez was going to get his "investment" from Billings.

Those recruits were Donnie Stallworth, Wayne Coldiron, Frederick Thornton, Rakeem Florence, Gary Sumner, Pamela Long-Wiggins and Gonzalez's own father, Leonard Patrick Gonzalez Snr, who acted as a getaway driver.

The team hatched a plan to perform a 'pincer movement' on the property, with half the gang entering the front of the house and the other half storming the back, ensuring that the Billingses had nowhere to run.

Gonzalez repeated the same question and received the same reply from Mr Billings.

"Gonzalez then shot Mr Billings in the leg.

Response

"And when Gonzalez repeated the question a third time – receiving the same response – he shot Mr Billings in the other leg."

Gonzalez then led the

DON'T MISS F

EVIL: Gonzalez and (left) the gang of crooks he put together to rob the Billings family Billingses into the master bedroom. While Thornton retrieved duffel bags from the van outside, he heard three more shots.

When he returned to the bedroom, he saw Mr Billings lying face down on the floor in a pool of blood.

"Gonzalez then asked Mrs Billings to open the safe in the closet of the bedroom.

Thornton then saw Gonzalez fire the gun again."

Poor Byrd and Melanie died horrific deaths.

The police files state: "The Billingses both died from multiple gunshot wounds.

"Mr Billings was shot five times – in both legs, the left cheek and twice in the back of the head.

"The two leg wounds would have been survivable. The cheek wound have been survivable for a few minutes until the victim drowned in his own blood.

"The two head wounds

SO GENEROUS: Byrd and Melanie took in 12 kids with special needs were inflicted close together, based on the similar angles and positions of the wounds. They were each fatal.

"Mrs Billings was shot four times – once in the face, once in the head and twice in the chest. All of her wounds were fatal.

"The first shot to her face would have rendered her unconscious. The other shots were inflicted as she lay on her back on the floor."

The court heard truly gut-wrenching evidence about the experiences of the children, too.

The couple's grown-up daughter, Ashley Markham, said one of the young adopted boys, named Jake, had raised the alarm.

Ashley revealed: "I had a missed call from my mum. I called back and Jake answered the phone.

"He wasn't saying anything, he was just screaming. I was asking if he could just let me talk to Mum and Dad."

Another one of the children, Adrianna, ran from the home and alerted a neighbour, nurse April Spencer.

April told the jury: "As I was walking toward the staircase I could see drops of blood."

"Melanie's son – he's 10 years old and he's got Down's Syndrome – he was standing in the living room and pointing to his mum and dad's bedroom.

Lying

"I went in. Byrd was lying in front of the dresser, face down. It looked like he had been shot in the head.

"Melanie was lying in front of the closet, face up."

According to a sheriff's report, the 10-year-old had been sleeping with Byrd and Melanie at the time.

The report stated: "He heard a knock on the door and then 'two bad men' said, 'You're going to die – one, two, three, and then, 'No way, no way.'

The child witness said his dad grabbed the neck of one of the gunmen and that his mum "got shot in her shirt".

It took until July 12 – three days after the murders – before Gonzalez and his posse were rounded up.

They'd been clinical in the execution of their sick plan, getting in and out of the house, with the safe, in less than 10 minutes.

But the safe they stole was virtually worthless – and, crucially, they'd made clumsy errors. Fingerprints were found belonging to Long-Wiggins, while Gonzalez aroused suspicion by telling a friend: "If anyone asks, you haven't seen me."

Thornton eventually testified against his co-accusers, scoring a reduced prison sentence.

Only Gonzalez had protested his innocence.

Penalty

While the others escaped with life terms, he received the death penalty.

After the sentencing, Ashley Markham, said: "My mother always told me some people grow up wanting to be doctors or lawyers or teachers.

"She just wanted to be a mummy."

"Her lifelong dream was loving her babies and being a voice for them."

NAKED MAN HURLS HIS PLOP AROUND AT PETROL STATION

WHAT A SHIT: Joel is nabbed by cops

EVERYONE is a bit vexed by the price of petrol at the moment but one customer took being cross to a whole new level.

Because when Joel Pennington clocked the cost of fuel, he had a bit of a meltdown.

The 51-year-old threatened staff and customers at a petrol station in Erwinville, Louisiana.

But he wasn't finished.

Pennington stripped naked, defecated on the floor and began flinging his poo around the shop, howling it was "all Biden's fault" – referring to the senile US President.

Bizarrely, his elderly MOTHER was waiting in the passenger seat of his van while all this unfolded.

By the time cops arrived, Pennington was in the back of his van whimpering.

He began screaming at cops after they opened the van doors, and after verbal warnings, officers used a taser on him twice.

Pennington slid out of the vehicle and was handcuffed.

While he was being escorted to the police vehicle, Pennington jumped up and landed fully on his tailbone.

The cashier and the customers inside the store at the time later reported they had to force Pennington outside after he had defecated.

Obscenity

Witnesses also reported Pennington tried to assault the cashier.

Pennington was charged with three counts of resisting an officer, one count of obscenity, and three counts of disturbing the peace in various manners, among other charges.

# HOT 'N' HORNY

BOUNCY Billie Rae confessed she had full-on SEX in a SEAT on a train.

The cheeky redhead, from Croydon, south London, boasts whopping 34E fun bags... so we imagine those bobbing up and down in public didn't go unnoticed.

She told Midweek Sport: "Sex outdoors drives me wild!"

"It's a real turn on knowing you might get caught."

"I've had sex in a load of places. I've done it on the beach, in the back of cars, at a bus stop and even once on a train."

"Not in the toilet or anything, just literally on the seat in a carriage. There was no strike on then, obviously!"

"The thrill is amazing and seems to make the sex feel so much better."

The glamour model also revealed she loves watching porn with a lover and is game for making a SEX TAPE and having a kinky ménage-a-trois.

"I'd love a threesome with two blokes!" she said.

"I just know it would be so hot and I really like the idea of being the centre of attention."

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Unions don't give an Uncle Buck about us!

THE late, great, comic actor John Candy might well be raising a wry smile up in the heavens, where he surely lives on.

His biggest and best movie, the wonderful Planes, Trains and Automobiles, about a hilariously hazardous trip home across the United States, is about to become reality here in Blighty.

Just without any of the laughs.

We know the trains have come to a halt because the BBC and Sky News cannot excitedly report on the strikes enough.

They're so desperate for anything that could bring down the government, they are openly 24/7 cheerleaders for the hard-left RMT union.

Even though the squint-eyed 70s dinosaurs are demanding unrealistic, eyewatering pay rises, the Beeb in particular accepts their request without a flinch.

But they would, wouldn't they?

Because the BBC is funded by the real mugs in this country, namely you and me – the taxpayers.

Chunky

We literally DO pay their wages through the licence fee.

Wages that are in most cases considerably higher than those of the poor bastards – us – who have, by rule of law, to sustain them.

The train operating firms are supposedly different, as they're owned by shareholders.

But they were bailed out with £16billion of our money during the pandemic.

Aren't shareholders meant to prop up the companies they invest in, rather than just take a chunky dividend when times are hard?

And how come it was the taxpayers, not the shareholders, who had to stump up the money?

Not that the unions give a toss where the money comes from, as long as it comes.

And plenty of it, too.

Now we read that teachers and binmen – again, paid for by us – are lining up to walk out on strike, too.

What a coincidence, eh?

Anyone would think the unions are still smarting about voters convincingly rejecting Corbyn's communism in the 2019 general election.

Funny that.

And don't think for a second it will end there. Other council workers – yes, we also pay for them – will almost certainly be next.

Stagnant

And no matter how many billions we chuck at the NHS, with few tangible results, it is never enough.

Meanwhile, back in the real world of the private sector, where wealth is created and shared, rather than Hoovered up and spent with wild abandon like in the public sector, wages remain stagnant.

And the grown-ups at the Bank of England, no less, are telling us we shouldn't ask for "unreasonable" pay rises as more pay would, erm, hurt the economy.

The logic seems to be that the more money you and I earn, it'll make inflation rocket, meaning all of our bills will rise accordingly.

So the answer seems to be that we should pay anyone in a public sector union loads more money that they clearly don't deserve, but keep the rest of us nervously treading water.

I somehow doubt that RMT boss Mick Lynch (Mob)'s favourite John Candy film is Planes, Trains and Automobiles.

More like Uncle Buck.

MY SEX FANTASY

'I want to have sexy fun with a stranger!'

I FANTASISE about sex with strangers. It's such a turn on.

I suppose it's because I grew up thinking sleeping around 'isn't what good girls do'.

So to behave quite slutty and get it on with someone you've just met feels very taboo and naughty.

In my fantasy I meet a guy while out and about – could be at the supermarket or the gym.

There's an instant attraction and chemistry. We flirt and one thing leads to another very quickly.

I get aroused thinking about the urgency of it... we do it in the gym toilets or in the supermarket carpark.

Perhaps it's day light and people could catch us but we can't help ourselves.

Because it's a stranger we totally lose our inhibitions and the sex is hot, hot, hot!"

Camping mum
'abandoned 3
kids on island'

A MOTHER who was initially reported as missing has been arrested for allegedly abandoning her three children during a camping trip on an ISLAND and running away with her boyfriend.

Courtney Taylor's kids, aged 12, 13 and 15, were discovered stranded on Cemetery Island on Lake Hartwell in South Carolina by a passing boater, the Anderson County Sheriff's Office said.

The kids told cops they were camping with their mum and her boyfriend, Eric Elrod.

But on the second day, Taylor and Elrod took off supposedly to get water but never returned.

Their vehicle was gone from its parking spot on the island.

The sheriff's office launched a search for the missing couple and located Taylor (above) in Pickens County.

She was charged with three counts of child neglect.

Elrod is wanted on a charge of distributing methamphetamine.

sealant for brekkie

CHILDREN were served floor sealant instead of milk at a summer school.

Several students complained their mouths and throats were burning shortly after being served breakfast and at least one child was taken to hospital for treatment.

Police in the Alaskan state capital of Juneau are investigating but do not believe "anything criminal" took place.

After the children complained the milk tasted bad, staff at Sit' Eeti Shaanax Glacier Valley Elementary School in Juneau checked the container label.

"Staff immediately directed students to stop consuming the substance and removed it," the school district said.

A school official immediately contacted poison control and alerted parents.

The Yellowjackets star recalled a film shoot that required a lot of nudity, revealing she had stayed naked in between scenes to normalise it for the crew.

Speaking to Euphoria star Sydney Sweeney for one of Variety's Actors on Actors interviews, former child star Ricci, 42, said: "Once I had to do a movie where I was naked pretty much the entire time."

"I was like, 'Don't make me feel weird, like I'm the person who has to be ashamed'. I would talk to crew members naked."

Christina did not divulge which movie, though she has appeared naked and revealing her firm, round breasts in a number of films.

"I wanted everybody around me to stop reacting to it, because then I would forget that I was naked," she said.

"And it worked. But it's one of the only times I've ever actually really felt comfortable being naked on camera."

Quality DIY skills fixed lonely MILF's problem

Dear Ava,

I'M a single guy of 27 and a few months ago I moved in to a new house.

After just a couple of days, a woman who lives across the road came knocking at my door.

She seemed upset and said her vacuum cleaner had broken and she had no idea how to fix it.

So I got my toolbox and went to have a look.

When we got inside her house, she broke down and told me her husband had walked out on her.

She was in her early 40s and attractive with nice boobs and a lovely round arse.

Saucy

Anyway, I fixed the vacuum and asked if she had any other jobs that needed doing.

She replied that there was a bit of a problem in the bedroom and showed me a wardrobe door which had jammed shut.

I got my screwdriver out and soon had it free.

But as it swung open, a pile of saucy undies tumbled out.

She blushed, but I quickly complimented her on the sexy gear and said cheekily that I bet she looked great in them.

To my surprise and delight, she told me to cover my eyes.

And a few minutes later when I opened them, she was standing in front of me in a basque with stockings, sussies and stilettos.

She wasted no time getting my trousers off and wrapping her lips around my rock-hard cock.

She soon guided my rigid tool into her and slid gently up and down its throbbing length.

After a few minutes I erupted deep inside her as she squealed in delight.

But since then she's blanked me. Do you think I failed to satisfy her?

HW, Suffolk

Ava says...

ASK her if she needs a regular fixing.

Dear Ava,

I'M confused. My previously boring husband has suddenly started paying me loads of attention.

And he's even become a revelation in the bedroom. We've never had so much and so varied sex in all the years we've been together.

He's also produced some saucy sex toys and naughty films – and one evening he even got out a pair of fury handcuffs!

He's also taken to licking me out, which he would never do before, and this brings me off every time.

Do you think something's going on?

KB, Devon

Ava says...

ENJOY it... and hope it lasts!

Sizzling lesbo lust with old school pal

Dear Ava,

I'M a 31-year-old mother of one and the other day I bumped into a girl I'd been at school with.

I hadn't seen her for years, so I invited her back to my place for a coffee and a chat about old times.

The conversation soon turned to sex and she admitted she wasn't getting much satisfaction from her husband. I had to admit I had the same problem.

She smiled and said there was another way. She said she got her kicks not from going with other men, which would mean being unfaithful, but with other women.

The thought had crossed my mind in the past, but I'd never done anything about it.

We undressed and lay on the bed, where we explored each other's naked bodies with our hands and tongues.

Juices

I just loved it when she crouched over my face and parted her pussy lips so I could see up her tight, pink love-tunnel.

I loved it even more when her love juices started to drip down over my face into my mouth.

She at last sat right down on my face, which allowed me to get my tongue deep inside her.

Then I lay back and she pushed three of her long fingers into my sopping pussy, bringing me to a series of mind-blowing orgasms.

After I'd done the same for her, we cuddled and kissed before dressing and going home.

I thought I'd feel guilty, but I don't. Is this normal?

N-J, east Midlands

Ava says...

YES. You have nothing to feel guilty about.

Dear Ava,

I AM a barmaid and I love sex. But now I'm feeling a bit apprehensive about going back to work after what happened a few months ago.

I'm 21 with long, dark hair and most blokes can't take their eyes off my 34Ds.

I am used to being chatted up and had never taken it any further until one of the regulars offered me £20 to suck his cock.

I needed the money, so I gave him a blow job on my way home.

I must have impressed him, as over the next few weeks several of his mates paid me to give them a gobble.

I was happy with the extra money and was even more delighted when the landlord offered me £600 to be shagged by him and six customers.

On the night of the gang-bang, soon after last orders, the landlord led me to the pool table.

He stripped me and soon I was being shagged by seven blokes in turn.

But they have obviously been bragging about it.

Now everyone knows about it and I can't go anywhere without being called a slag.

What should I do?

KB, Essex

HOT 'N'

'HORNY EVE ANGEL'

SHE'S more than enough to give any red-blooded bloke the raging horn.

But it's WOMEN who make Eve Angel purr – as the bisexual beauty craves girl-on-girl action between the sheets!

The stunner, who has all-natural 34C boobs, told Midweek Sport: "Of course I like having sex with men."

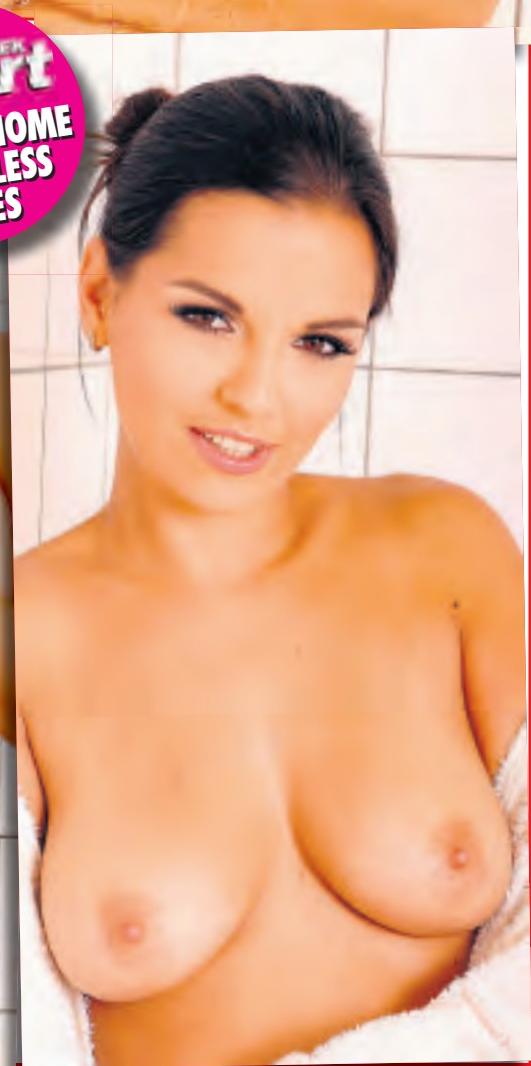

"But I always have stronger orgasms with women."

"I only squirt with women!"

"I think it's because a girl knows exactly what to do for another girl – how softly to lick, how to stroke the nipples, how to use your fingers."

Pert Eve, who originally hails from Budapest in Hungary but now lives in swanky Kensington, west London, has put her money where her mouth is, too.

She's starred in X-rated lesbo flicks like Inside Peaches, No Boys Here, Just Girls, Pink Velvet: The Innocence of Lesbian Love and the classic Oof! That's A Big Dildo For Anal, Madame.

EXCLUSIVE! The world's poshest porno is here at last!

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDS
FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy
Crawleys of Downton
Abbey and hello to the
horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded
fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5
OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine
Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters,
Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler
Small*** and footman
Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDS at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars
Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem,
Jasmine James as Fanny
Grabhem, Jess West as Lady
Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby
Grabhem, Ben Dover as
Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad
Dave as Smithers and
Clarke Kent as Master
Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to your interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunners appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

KIRSTEN IMRIE

SCAFFOLDER Gary Headley, from Hull, requested this snap of classic all-natural Scot Kirsten Imrie.

Gary, 52, told us he always has a copy of Midweek Sport to hand in his work van so he can while away his lunch hour ogling his favourite babes.

Gary said: "In my line of work I often get stuck in my van so I always make sure I have a copy of the Sport to hand."

"I always hope to see my all-time fave Kirsten and her impressive 36Ds in the paper, but it's been bloody ages since you printed a pic of her!"

Roe in for a Carlisle win

By MIKE FRANCIS

Stablemate by Agma Carlisle Bell Handicap.

Winner of two of his last three outings, including at Carlisle last time out, he appears to be a five-year-old going places.

The ex-Richard Hannan inmate is now up to a career-high mark of 82 but he won with plenty in hand on his latest start and looks sure to be suited going back up to a mile.

Camacho could even double up in the Atkinson Building Cumberland Plate Handicap.

The front runner just held on at Ripon and while it might be tougher to make all in this, he looks sure to run his race once more.

Cuban Rock has a first run for Jim Goldie in the Scalby Restricted Maiden Stakes since leaving Gemma Tutty.

A fine second on his second start to Explicit, that form has been franked by the winner who bolted up at York in a valuable seller.

Goldie claimed Cuban Rock for £15,000 and it could prove a shrewd move.

Marcus Tregoning's Morgham looked an exciting prospect when winning on his debut at Newbury in April and it was somewhat disappointing when he was beaten at odds-on next time out.

However, he might have bumped into one there in the shape of Whitebeam, trained by Harry and Roger Charlton.

Whitebeam was in receipt of 11lb when beating Morgham yet she was good enough to defy a penalty at Newbury.

Morgham might be up to winning off 90 in the Havana Grey Standing At Whitsbury Manor Handicap at Salisbury.

Tregoning also holds very solid claims with Al Azhar in the Showcasing Standing At Whitsbury Manor Bibury Cup Handicap.

Green

Wins at Goodwood and Newbury have seen him shoot up the handicap and he appears to have scared a lot of potential opposition away as only three take him on.

Impeachment made a very promising debut at Lingfield and looks the one to be on in the EBF Fillies' Restricted Novice Stakes at Bath.

She was not knocked about when third of five and looked very green in the early stages suggesting she should benefit from the run.

James Tate's New Definition has bumped into two who went on to run with credit at Royal Ascot.

Tate will be hoping there is nothing of that class in the British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes at Kempton.

Clitheroe made eyecatching progress – and even suffered trouble in running, so to get as close as she did suggests she has a fair engine.

She was thrown into Group Three company on just her second ever start, despite not winning on her debut, so she has clearly always been highly regarded.

Being owned by breeders, black type is the aim and while she did get it last time, there is every chance, with a 3lb pull at the weights that this time Clitheroe can get a very valuable Listed win.

Makeen can continue his progression for Julie Camacho by winning the historic

Three Stakes on her debut at Newbury in April and it was somewhat disappointing when he was beaten at odds-on next time out.

IT'S JOLLY OLD WIMBERS TENNIS NEXT WEEK!

Raducanu needs to show her best form

BRITISH BEAUTY HAS QUESTIONS TO ANSWER ON RETURN TO SW19

THE pinnacle of the British summer is upon us again with the 2022 edition of Wimbledon.

Here, we pick out five talking points ahead of this year's tournament.

Emma's homecoming

Things will be different for Emma Raducanu at Wimbledon this year. It was 12 months ago she stole the hearts of the nation with her historic run to the second week in what was her debut grand slam.

The teenager became the youngest British player to make it to the fourth round at SW19 and things only got better from there as two months later she produced an incredible sporting feat by winning the US Open.

She achieved all that without having established herself on the regular tour and it has been tough since as injuries, defeats and a raft of coaching changes have made it a difficult introduction to life as a professional.

By ANDY MILLOM

She will surely take heart from her first return to the All England Club, though surely cannot have too many expectations of producing another unbelievable story.

The 19-year-old has played just 33 minutes on grass after sustaining a side strain in her first warm-up match at Nottingham and there are doubts about her entry to the tournament.

Any more Murray magic?

Murray skipped all-but one tournament in the clay season to prepare for Wimbledon and it looked like a wise decision as he made the final in Stuttgart.

But he suffered an injury in that defeat to 2021 SW19 runner-up Matteo Berrettini, which hit his preparation.

If he overcomes that then he will have eyes on his best run at a grand slam since his hip injury derailed his career in 2016.

The two-time champion has only been past the second round once in eight attempts.

But this is his happy hunting ground and he will be eyeing a run to the second week, which would be some achievement for a player with a metal hip.

Ban and ranking controversy

This is the first edition since 2019 that will be played in front of a full capacity, but things are still not normal.

Wimbledon's decision to bar Russian and Belarusian players in response to the invasion of Ukraine has had serious repercussions, with the ATP and WTA deciding to withhold ranking points from the tournament.

Men's world No1 Daniil Medvedev and women's No5 Aryna Sabalenka are among those to be banned, while it remains to be seen how many leading players decide not to enter because of the lack of points on offer.

The prestige and record prize money will make it worthwhile for most players, but how the dynamic of the

HOME TIE:
Raducanu is looking for a big show at Wimbledon

NO1 BRIT: Norrie

Cameron ready to cope with being No1

By DON MCENROE

CAMERON Norrie heads to Wimbledon as British number one for the first time and is seeking to finally reach the second week of a grand slam.

Being the nation's top-ranked male player at SW19 weighed heavy on many shoulders in the past until Andy Murray ended the 77-year wait for a champion in 2013.

But laid-back Norrie, who was born in South Africa to Welsh mother Helen and Scottish father David before being brought up in Auckland, does not get fazed by the expectations of the home crowd.

The 26-year-old, who broke into the world's top 10 earlier this year, is confident he can get past the third round at a major tournament.

"I think it's just putting myself in that situation time and time again," he said.

"Being better than the other guy in the bigger moments. That's what tennis comes down to."

"So I'm looking forward to it. I really like the grass and the vibe around the grass, and being at home."

Norrie is looking forward to some home comforts. At last year's tournament, played under coronavirus restrictions, all the players had to stay in a central London hotel and get a bus to the Wimbledon site – which actually took Norrie past his own digs.

"I think it's always an advantage, sleeping in your own bed, being familiar with your room and everything," he added.

"It's going to be nice so I'm looking forward to that and just being close – that drive was a killer last year from central London to Wimbledon."

"It was like a good hour every day, so it's going to be nice to be 10 minutes and I'm there."

"I was literally driving past it every day last year, seeing it from the bus and thinking 'wow I could easily be staying there right now.' That was frustrating."

Serena's quest for history

Will this be the year that Serena Williams equals Margaret Court's record of 24 grand slam singles titles?

The American won her 23rd title in 2017 when she won the Australian Open while pregnant.

She has won seven titles on Centre Court so it would be the fitting place to do it even if that seems highly optimistic.

The 40-year-old has not played since limping out of the first round at the All England Club 12 months ago due to a leg injury, which raised doubts over whether she would play again.

But she has accepted a wild card, which has an incredibly open field.

With last year's champion Ash Barty retired, Iga Swiatek will be hot favourite given she is on a record-equalling 35-match winning run, but Raducanu's victory in New York shows that anything is possible.

NEW HAMMER: Aguerd

Morocco stopper signs for Hammers

WEST Ham have signed Morocco defender Nayef Aguerd from French side Rennes.

The 26-year-old, who has been capped 25 times by his country, has agreed a five-year contract with the Premier League club.

Hammers manager David Moyes had been eager to recruit a left-footed centre-back during the summer window.

Aguerd will provide competition for Craig Dawson, Issa Diop, Angelo Ogbonna and Kurt Zouma at London Stadium.

A delighted Moyes said: "I am delighted to welcome Nayef to West Ham United."

"We have tracked his progress for some time and I'm very pleased that we have been able to complete the signing.

"He's a great addition that will add to our defensive options.

Successful

"I have been really impressed with Nayef's character and attitude during our discussions before the move.

"He has a great desire to improve and be successful, and I am sure he will fit in very well to the environment we have at our Rush Green training ground."

Aguerd began his career with FUS Rabat in his homeland before moving to France in 2018 to join Dijon and then transferring to Rennes in 2020.

He has moved quickly through the ranks and believes he can take another step up a grade in a Hammers shirt.

He can't wait to get started.

"I was really excited when I heard about West Ham United's interest," said the player.

"When I heard about it, I knew I needed to go to the Premier League, because it's a dream for every player."

"West Ham is a historic club in the Premier League."

"I talked with the manager and he showed me that he was very interested, so it was easy to choose to come and sign for West Ham."

ENGLAND BOSS HAS A FEW BIG CALLS WHO IS ON THE PLANE?

We reckon Southgate might need big rethink after Nations League cock-up

GARETH SOUTHGATE HAS PLENTY OF FOOD FOR THOUGHT AS HE CONSIDERS HIS WORLD CUP SELECTION FOLLOWING ENGLAND'S SUMMER FIXTURES.

The Three Lions went on a winless run of four Nations League matches that have sparked questions about his future as manager.

With two September fixtures all that remain for England before the World Cup gets under way in November, Midweek Sport looks how the squad is shaping up.

Goalkeepers

On the plane: Jordan Pickford (Everton) and Aaron Ramsdale (Arsenal)

In the departure lounge: Nick Pope (Burnley)

Hoping for a late ticket: Fraser Forster (Tottenham), Dean

By PAUL THOMAS

Henderson (Manchester United) and Sam Johnstone (West Brom)

Jordan Pickford has been number one since the World Cup in Russia and is sure to be among Southgate's three goalkeepers, as is Aaron Ramsdale.

The Arsenal goalkeeper followed an impressive season with a solid showing as he won his second cap in the 0-0 draw against Italy.

He will want to forget the Hungary Molineux mauling, which Nick Pope – part of the 2018 World Cup squad and absent from the Euros through injury – watched from the bench.

Defenders

On the plane: Reece James (Chelsea), Harry Maguire (Man United), John Stones (Man City) and Kyle Walker (Man City)

In the departure lounge: Trent Alexander-Arnold (Liverpool), Ben

Chilwell (Chelsea), Conor Coady (Wolves), Marc Guehi (Crystal Palace), Tyrone Mings (Aston Villa), Luke Shaw (Manchester United), Fikayo Tomori (AC Milan), Kieran Trippier (Newcastle) and Ben White (Arsenal)

Hoping for a late ticket: Eric Dier (Tottenham), James Justin (Leicester), Tyrick Mitchell (Palace), Ryan Sessegnon (Tottenham), Matt Targett (Newcastle) and Kyle Walker-Peters (Southampton)

Manchester United captain Harry Maguire has endured a challenging campaign but has always retained the faith of Southgate. He is all but certain to go to the World Cup, as is John Stones despite being sent off for two yellow cards in a poor performance against Hungary.

Reece James and Kyle Walker – a man Southgate this week picked out for his growing leadership – are sure to be there too. Most would want Liverpool's Trent Alexander-Arnold to join them but he has not quite stamped his place in the England team and Southgate's appreciation of the versatile Kieran Trippier is well documented.

Luke Shaw and Ben Chilwell were sorely missed this month as the left-backs return to fitness and will surely be selected if they start the season strongly. There are, though, still spots up for grab at the back.

Midfielders

On the plane: Jude Bellingham (Borussia Dortmund), Jordan Henderson (Liverpool), Mason Mount (Chelsea), Kalvin Phillips (Leeds) and Declan Rice (West Ham)

In the departure lounge: Conor Gallagher (Chelsea) and James Ward-Prowse (Southampton)

Hoping for a late ticket: Harvey Barnes (Leicester), Jesse Lingard (Man United), James Maddison (Leicester) and Emile Smith Rowe (Arsenal)

off after a mammoth season but the Liverpool captain looks a shoo-in for the World Cup squad if playing regularly, as do trusted lieutenants Mason Mount, Kalvin Phillips and Declan Rice.

Jude Bellingham, who does not turn 19 until the end of June, has done enough to join them, but Southgate has decisions to make about who – if any – complement them as midfield options.

James Ward-Prowse just missed out on the Euro 2020 squad and Conor Gallagher only made one appearance across June's games.

Forwards

On the plane: Phil Foden (Man C), Jack Grealish (Man C), Harry Kane (Spurs), Bukayo Saka (Arsenal), Raheem Sterling (Man C)

In the departure lounge: Tammy Abraham (Roma)

Hoping for a late ticket: Patrick Bamford (Leeds), Jarrod Bowen (W Ham), Dominic Calvert-Lewin (Everton), Eddie Nketiah (Arsenal), Marcus Rashford (Man Utd), Jadon Sancho (Man United), Ivan Toney (Brentford), Ollie Watkins (Villa) and Callum Wilson (Newcastle).

Harry Kane will lead the side, where Raheem Sterling will hope to play an important role once more. Southgate expressed "concern" about the overreliance on the pair.

Phil Foden, Jack Grealish and Bukayo Saka have put in impressive performances for the Three Lions so look assured of a place in the squad whether it ends up being comprised of 23 or 26 players.

New boy Jarrod Bowen showed flickers of promise this month but needs to do more in September, when Tammy Abraham will hope to get another chance to prove himself as a worthy back-up to Kane. Jadon Sancho and Marcus Rashford have a chance if they start the new season strongly.

BUZZING ROSS NEW TANGERINES BOSS

JACK Ross explained that he was drawn by a sense of "buzz and excitement" after he was named as Dundee United's new head coach.

The 46-year-old former Alloa, St Mirren, Sunderland and Hibernian manager has been appointed on a two-year contract.

Ross, who has been out of work since being sacked by the Easter Road club in December, replaces Tam Courts who left last week to take charge of Hungarian side Honved.

"I've had a spell out of management and was happy to have a break," the new boss said.

"In all the conversations I've had with the club, I've felt that buzz and excitement. I firmly believe I've been given a fantastic opportunity at a terrific football club.

"What we did last year was brilliant, but the challenge is to deliver consistent success to the club."

Arsenal and Man United want Roma hitman

TAMMY Abraham is in demand from two clubs trying to get back into the Champions League.

Manchester United and Arsenal both like the look of the England striker.

He hit top form in Italy last season, banging in 27 goals in 53 games for Jose

By JOHN ANTHONY

Mourinho's Roma. Like the two English clubs, they failed to qualify for the Champions League next season.

Abraham is thought to be keen on signing for Erik Ten Hag who has just taken over at Old Trafford.

And he has dropped a heavy hint that he'll be back in the Premier League sooner rather than later.

Abraham said: "When I see reports linking me with other clubs it makes me feel good, it makes you feel like you're doing something right. It's a nice feeling seeing your name all over newspapers."

"Of course I grew up in England, I'm a London boy. So maybe one day I'll be back in the Premier League to make noise there."

Abraham could hit the ground running having played in the top flight for Chelsea and Aston Villa.

But he wouldn't come cheap with Roma looking for a major profit on the £36m they paid Chelsea for his services last summer.

A figure around £50m could get the deal done.
